International Financial Aid Award Appeal 2014–2015

This form is for incoming international students. Current Drexel students should contact Drexel Central for financial aid appeal instructions at 1.877.DREXEL.5 or ask.drexel.edu.

Re-evaluation of Financial Assistance

Drexel's financial assistance program includes both traditional financial aid and an installment plan, which allows you to budget all or a portion of your educational expenses in monthly payments. Families should consider both types of assistance in assessing their capacity to meet Drexel's costs. We want to be as responsive as possible to particular families' situations within the limits of federal and University policies and available funding levels. For more information on the payment options, please contact Drexel Central at 1.877.DREXEL.5 or ask.drexel.edu.

While requesting an appeal is not a guarantee that additional funds will be forthcoming, it is a guarantee that your appeal will be carefully reviewed and a response provided in writing.

Please note that you can only file the Financial Aid Award Appeal once. Be sure to include all necessary information when submitting your appeal.

To ensure proper and careful evaluation of your request, be sure to do the following:

- Include the student's full name and Drexel student ID number in the Financial Aid Award Appeal.
- Complete in full the Financial Aid Award Appeal form.
- Include new information and supporting documentation, such as:
  - A change in academic information, such as an increased SAT/ACT/TOEFL/IELTS score or new grades.
  - An academic scholarship and/or financial aid package from a comparable college or university. Please include a copy of the scholarship letter and/or financial aid package with your appeal.
- Submit all material at one time. Material sent after the receipt of the Financial Aid Award Appeal form will not be passed to the committee for review.
- Approach the appeal committee in a professional manner.
- Include a letter written by the student.

Please submit the completed Financial Aid Appeal form and all supporting information to finaid_appeals@drexel.edu or via fax to 215.895.6679.
