

star leader

MAY 2009

Christine Rettew

Christine was nominated by her fellow Circle K officers because, as the new treasurer, she has worked diligently to understand the complexities and subtleties of the financial aspects to running a club.

She was also a spark behind the scenes and professionally handled multiple situations that arose as a new leadership era took over Circle K.

Christine also started her own service initiative, Bingo Night at the Senior Center, where she displayed strengths of caring about everyone.

Student Life and the Office of Campus Activities are pleased to honor and recognize the achievements of our student leaders and student organizations
at Drexel University!
