Richard Cairncross

Advisor, Engineers Without Border

Richard was nominated by EWB students because he has always provided unceasing aide and support for EWB for the past couple years, including hosting independent study classed devoted to bringing students together to work on EWB projects and learn about appropriate technology.

Students stated, "most importantly he has never once made me feel as though he wasn't giving us everything he could to make our organization the best it could be" .

Student Life and the Office of Campus Activities are pleased to honor and recognize the achievements of our student leaders and student organizations at Drexel University!
