MARCH 2008

Marla Gaglione

Charles Rumford

Marla - She has redesigned the process through which Law student associations apply for funding by collaborating with the SBA Finance Committee. She also designed a survey to gather information in hope to assist in policy and facilities improvements within the law school.

Charles - He displayed exemplary leadership qualities in his overall planning and implementation of the entire Habitat for Humanity, 2008 ASB trip. He exhibits strong organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills. Through his passion for team building and working as a cohesive unit, this was one of the best experiences in participants' college careers.

Student Life and the Office of Campus Activities are pleased to honor and recognize the achievements of our student
