

Programme for Drs Lachman, Glasgow and Dreher & Doctoral Students from Drexel University, Philadelphia

Tuesday 24th April 2007 - 9am to 5pm

Venue: Room 31, Hunter Wing, Level 5, St George's Hospital, Blackshaw
Road - Nearest Underground Station: Tooting Broadway

- 9am Welcome & Introductions – Professor Paul Wainwright & Dr Ann Gallagher
- 9.30am Is Ethical Competence a Coherent Notion? – Ann Gallagher
- 9.45am Tea/coffee
- 11am Dignity in Everyday Nursing Practice – Ann Gallagher & Paul Wainwright
- 12md Lunch with Professor Fiona Ross, Dean of the Faculty of Health and Social Care Sciences.
- 1pm Leading Nursing in a London Hospital - Dr Geraldine Walters, Director of Nursing, St George's Healthcare NHS Trust & Visiting Professor, Buckinghamshire Chilterns University College
- 1.30pm The Contribution of Nurse Leadership Programme - Ms Jayne Quigley, Head of Nursing, Leadership Development, St George's Healthcare NHS Trust.
- 2pm Legal and Professional issues in Nurse Education - Mrs Sue Coppard, Principal Lecturer, Faculty of Health & Social Care Sciences
- 2.45pm Tea/coffee
- 3pm Leading and Researching Nursing in a Multi-professional Faculty - Mrs Kath Start, Deputy Dean & Head of School of Nursing, Faculty of Health & Social Care Sciences
- 4pm The Nurse Consultant role in Critical Care (and, if appropriate on the day, visit to Critical Care Unit) – Ms Deborah Dawson, Nurse Consultant Critical Care, St George's Healthcare NHS Trust