If Student is Under 18 Years of Age

All first year resident students must be on the Platinum, Gold, or Blue Plan. All meals and dining dollars must be used by the end of each term. Meals associated with the Platinum, Gold, and Blue plans are not transferable to any other individual. Meals are non-refundable, and must be consumed in the Dining Center. Students must abide by all rules, regulations and standards of conduct established by the University and as outlined in the University Student Handbook. This agreement cannot be changed or cancelled after the second week of the term. After the second week, plan cancellations may only be granted when the student officially withdraws from the University. The kosher plan can not be canceled after January 11, 2010.
