Office of Graduate Studies
Provost Fellowship Nomination Form

Each year, the Office of Graduate Studies is pleased to offer for open competition a limited number of Provost Fellowships that are designed to encourage the recruitment of highly qualified students for all of Drexel's doctoral programs. Each Provost Fellow will receive a sum of $10,000 distributed over two years in addition to whatever stipend is being offered to them by their program. To qualify for the Provost Fellowship, the nominee must be an incoming student yet to begin their program of study who will enroll in a full-time doctoral or master's program (if the latter, the master's degree must be a required precursor to a doctoral program). Please return all materials to the Graduate Studies Office by the posted deadline for consideration of the nominee.
