

Liberty Mutual provides special auto insurance coverages for educators – at no additional cost.

We're focusing all our attention on you because you're focusing your life on your school. Liberty Mutual's special auto insurance coverages for educators ensure you're covered in the faculty parking lot and when you're driving on school business. We also offer special benefits to protect school materials in case of theft – all at no additional cost to you.

- If your car is vandalized on school property or during school-related events, we will waive your deductible
- Waived deductible for auto collisions that occur while on school business*
- Personal property coverage up to $2,500 if your school's materials or property is stolen or damaged while in your car
