

The Fulbright Scholar Program for 2011-2012 is Open.

The Fulbright Scholar Program is offering teaching, research or combination teaching/research awards in over 125 countries for the 2011-2012 academic year. Opportunities are available for college and university faculty and administrators as well as for professionals, artists, journalists, scientists, lawyers, independent scholars and many others. There are awards in 45 specific academic disciplines as well as 175 awards open to all disciplines.

Interested faculty and professionals are encouraged to participate in one of our weekly webinars, including a special March 25th session featuring Adam Grotzky, Executive Director of the United States-India Educational Foundation, on the expanding Fulbright opportunities in India. For more information, visit our website at www.iie.org/cies/webinar.

The application deadline is August 2, 2010. U.S. citizenship is required. For other eligibility requirements and detailed award descriptions visit our website at http://www.iie.org/cies/us_scholars/us_awards/ or contact us at scholars@iie.org.
