Drexel Fellowships Workshop

Summer 2009
Fellowships Workshop

Drexel Fellowships Office
Pennoni Honors College
Office of Graduate Studies

Drexel University is pleased to offer a hands-on workshop during the summer of 2009 for students applying for competitive external fellowships. The workshop is designed to help both undergraduate and graduate students produce their strongest possible applications for these national and international awards.

By working with guidance from individual mentors, group facilitators, and peer critique, students will prepare and revise their applications throughout the summer, readying them for fall deadlines.

Should I Do This?

Do I want to apply for one of the awards listed on the next panel?

Do I have support from a couple of faculty mentors, or can I get that?

Are my grades strong?

Can I demonstrate engagement, leadership, character?

Can I devote a portion of this summer to serious thinking, planning, writing, revising?

Eligibility

This workshop is open to current Drexel students of any degree level or discipline who are serious about and eligible for competitive external awards with early Fall 2009 deadlines. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- EPA STAR
- Ford Foundation Pre-Doc Diversity Fellowshps
- Fulbright Scholarship
- Gates Cambridge Scholarship
- Hertz Foundation
- IBM PhD Fellowships
- Jacob Javits Fellowship
- Marshall Scholarship
- Mitchell Scholarship
- NSF Graduate Research Fellowship
- Rhodes Scholarship
- Soros Fellowship for New Americans

To enroll in the workshop, students must fulfill the requirements of at least one of these awards or have approval of Dr. Buchalter or Dr. Lim.

Dates and Deadlines

Workshop Session Dates and Times

- June 22nd
- July 30th
- September 2nd
- All sessions will run 4-6pm.

Application Deadlines

Graduate Student Deadline: April 23rd
 Undergraduate applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.

For Graduate Students

The Graduate Studies Office is pleased to offer a limited number of $250 incentive stipends to graduate students who join the summer workshop and submit an application for a competitive fellowship in fall of 2009. To apply for this opportunity, check the box on the application.
