AUGUST 2009

Matthew Hood

As the President, Matthew worked to revive MAGNET (Materials Engineering Graduate Student Network) by instituting a graduate seminar series, encouraging involvement between labs and disciplines, arranging a Materials Symposium, organizing social and academic events, and by creating a new website.

Through this, Matthew also strengthened collaboration with other departments.

Student Life and the Office of Campus Activities are pleased to honor and recognize the achievements of our student leaders and student organizations
at Drexel University!
