

Let Us Stay With You at The Ritz-Carlton, Philadelphia

The picturesque marble building, a replica of the Pantheon in Rome, opened its doors in 1908. In 2000, The Ritz-Carlton proudly re-opened the doors to this magnificent building and ushered in a new era of luxury for travelers to Philadelphia.

The hotel is located in the very heart of Center City and is a short stroll to the Convention Center, shopping, restaurants, and cultural venues. Making its mark in a spectacular historic building, our hotel in Center City is just a short cab ride from the University.

The Ritz-Carlton, Philadelphia is a downtown, five-diamond hotel that features:

- 299 guest rooms including our spectacular Penthouse Suite
- 10 Arts Bistro by Eric Ripert and 10Arts Lounge set in our majestic 140-foot domed ceiling
- Complimentary guest room internet ($9.95 value per day)
