

HISTORY

In the History Major Program, students are introduced to historical interpretations of selected time periods, geographic areas, and themes. The curriculum offers students a wide degree of flexibility and independence. Students may design a course of study that reflects individual interest and meets a wide variety of pre-professional needs, such as pre-law or pre-civil service. This course of study is selected after close and continuing consultation with a faculty advisor chosen by the student or by the department head.

The Department offers both a Bachelor of Science (BS) and a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in History. Students may choose the program that best fits their needs and future goals.

The Bachelor of Science (BS) provides a framework for those students who prefer specific course requirements, including sequences in mathematics and the natural sciences.

The Bachelor of Arts (BA) provides a more flexible course of study, which includes foreign language and allows for options in the fulfillment of humanities, social science, math, and science requirements.

Students wanting specific information about the major are encouraged to stop by the department office in 3025 MacAlister Hall, call the department at 215-895-2463 or visit their website at www.drexel.edu/coas/histpol/.
