Application to Participate in Commencement Activities Rule Set

Purpose

Students who have not officially completed all degree requirements for graduation by the Spring term, use this form to apply to participate in commencement activities.

Regulations

Undergraduate Students

Full-time undergraduate students seeking to participate in Spring commencement activities must demonstrate that they are within 20 credits of graduation and must be able to complete these credits by the end of the subsequent Fall term. Part-time undergraduate students must be within 12 credits or two terms of completing degree requirements and must be able to complete these credits by the end of the subsequent Fall term.

Graduate Students

Graduate students seeking to participate in Spring commencement activities must be within 6 credits of completing their degree requirements and must finish these credits by the end of the summer term. Additionally, they must have defended their thesis or dissertation and plan to submit their final copy to the library within 2 weeks of commencement.

Please note: because students who file the Application to Participate in Commencement Activities form are not degree candidates (and are not graduating), their names will not appear in the official commencement booklet for the graduating class.

By signing this form students will cancel any prior application for degree form they may have submitted to officially graduate and participate in commencement activities.
