Jeff Bonfield

Director, Center for Academic Success,
Center City Hahnemann Campus

As the advisor to One in Four, Jeff has guided this group of men to be motivated to spread the message that men can make a difference in the life of a rape survivor who comes to them for help.

He inspires confidence into the organization's leadership, thus resulting in a significant increase in campus participation this year by One in Four.

His sterling character and amazing connection to these men has truly impacted the organization.
