Essay Information

- All applicants must submit a 250- to 500-word essay. The essay submitted on the Common Application fulfills this requirement unless you are applying to one of the programs below.
- Applicants to the following programs should review these specific instructions regarding submission of the essay.

Westphal College of Media Arts & Design applicants: Relate your essay topic to your interest in your intended major. If you are applying to an accelerated degree program in the Westphal College, your essay topic should relate to your selected major and indicate why you are a good candidate for the program.

Accelerated degree applicants (except BA/BS/MD and BA/BS/JD): You should describe the factors that influenced your decision to pursue an accelerated degree in your chosen profession.

- BA/BS/MD applicants should refer to Application Procedures and deadlines at www.drexel.edu/undergrad/apply/freshman.
- BS/JD and BS/MS in Psychology applicants must submit a complete application by December 1. Qualified candidates for these programs will be invited by email to provide additional admission materials.
- BS/PhD applicants should describe any research involvement.
- Qualified Custom-Designed major applicants will be invited by email to provide additional admission materials.
