Prerequisite: Completion of Russian 201 or placement into Russian 202.

Description:

Russian 202 meets three hours per week with a weekly one hour cyberspace lab requirement. The focus of this course, and all courses in the SILP program, is the acquisition of oral skills. During class time you should expect your teacher to speak entirely in Russian and to focus on drilling you on core conversations and phrases that you have learned at home. The SILP curriculum demands tremendous commitment on the part of the student. In order to successfully complete the course students should expect to not only come to every class meeting, acquire one lab hour weekly, but to study at least 10 hours a week.

Texts:

Live from Russia Volume 1 and Volume 2, (text, workbook, cassette tape and video tape), Davidson, Gor et al. ACTR, 2008

Goals:

Students who come prepared to class and who actively participate can expect to:

- * Make succinct statements about people and events based upon the year and date in which something took place.
- *Express motion in a variety of situations using multidirectional and unidirectional verbs.
- *Be able to talk about going different places, driving taking a bus or train, etc.
- *Talk about how to get to different places.

Attendance policy:

Attendance is mandatory. Students are allowed to miss no more than 10% of their total class/lab time during the term. Students who exceed the maximum allowable absences will be asked to drop the course, and will not be allowed to take the final exam and consequently will fail the course.

Cyberspace lab:

Russian 202 students are required to go to work on their listening and reading skills with the material provided on their WebCT site for Russian 202. Students need to spend 10 hours per term on the activities assigned in cyberspace. WebCT can be accessed through BbVista at Drexel or on DrexelOne by clicking on "My Courses".

Your instructor will check cyber space hours during the third, fifth and eighth week of the term. All students must complete their WebCT requirement in order to be eligible for the final exam. WebCT hours are to be completed by 5pm on the Friday before final exams .

Final Exam:

Your entire grade will be determined by your final oral exam. This exam is given on either Friday, Saturday or Sunday of the 10th week of the term (before the rest of the University begins final exams) by the University's outside examiner. OTHER RESOURCES:Coaching and The Conversation Network:

All Drexel Russian language students are eligible for one free hour of coaching per week. You may sign up for coaching through DLC in 050 Creese or on their website <http://www.dlc.drexel.edu/>. Coaching is an excellent opportunity for ALL students, both those doing well and those in need of assistance, to improve their language skills.

Through the English Language Center, located on the first floor of the Language and Communication Center, Russian language students may sign up for a conversation partner. The Conversation Network is designed to give Drexel students an opportunity to meet and converse with a foreign student who has come to Drexel to learn English. This program is not designed to replace daily preparation for class, but rather can provide a forum for informal student interaction.

Students may sign up for the Conversation Network by stopping by the English Language Center, or sending an e-mail to: Conversation.Network@drexel.edu or by phoning them at (215) 895-2022.

Drexel University encourages all students to study and/or work abroad as part of their academic program. Available options include:

1. Intensive Language Study Abroad:

Various programs are available, primarily in the summer. Prior completion of Level 103 is required for recommendation by the Foreign Language Programs. Information is available at the Foreign Language Programs office (210 LCC), in the IAS Office (MacAlister 2024), and in the Office of International Programs (Randell 230).

2. Co-op and Internships Abroad:

Drexel Abroad programs in languages and the liberal arts are administered by the director of International Area Studies and include study-internship programs in Europe and intensive language programs in China, Japan and Russia. They require junior status, with a 3.0 average (3.5 for pre-juniors), completion of level 203 of the target language (except in London), and at least two upper-division courses in history, politics and sociology. Internships in Belgium are with the European Parliament, and in other countries with multinational corporations or with organizations and agencies in a variety of disciplines.

3. International Programs:

The Office of International Programs offers a number of discipline-specific programs abroad (most of which do not require substantive language skills), including the opportunity for Drexel students in a variety of majors to study/co-op in London. More information is available by emailing the Study Abroad office at: studyabroad@drexel.edu or by contacting Daniela Ascarelli, Study Abroad Coordinator at (215) 895-1704.
