What is Short Term Disability insurance?

Short Term Disability (STD) insurance can help you replace a portion of your income during the initial weeks of a Disability.

Eligibility Requirements

Short Term Disability:

All Full Time Active Employees excluding Faculty Members, Stationary Engineers, temporary, leased or seasonal employees working at least 40 hours per week are eligible to participate.

How is “Disability” defined under the Plan?

Generally, you are considered disabled and eligible for short term benefits if, due to sickness, pregnancy or accidental injury, you are receiving appropriate care and treatment and complying with the requirements of the treatment and you are unable to earn more than 80% of your predisability earnings at your own occupation.

For a complete description of this and other requirements that must be met, refer to the Summary Plan Description provided by your Employer.

What is the benefit amount?

Short Term Disability:

The Short Term Disability benefit replaces a portion of your predisability earnings, less the income that was actually paid to you for the same Disability from other sources¹ (e.g., state disability benefits, no-fault auto laws, etc.).

The Benefit amount is 60% of your predisability weekly earnings. The maximum weekly benefit is $2,700.

When do benefits begin and how long do they continue?

Short Term Disability:

Benefits begin after the end of the elimination period. The elimination period begins on the day you become disabled and is the length of time you must wait while being disabled before you are eligible to receive a benefit. The elimination periods are/is as follows:

For Injury: 30 days.

For Sickness (includes pregnancy): 30 days.

Benefits continue for as long as you are disabled up to a maximum duration of 8 weeks of Disability.

Your plan's maximum benefit period and any specific limitations are described in the Summary Plan Description provided by your Employer.
